INTRODUCTION

It is time to bring a little sanity and clarity of understanding into what has become very murky waters. Because man is mostly a corrupted emotional creature it is difficult for the individual to distinguish between fact and fancy. Very few people sort out or even look for the facts in the midst of the hype that accompanies almost every situation. I well remember arriving back at home in Africa after an extensive overseas trip. My administrator had the local newspaper and I started flipping through the pages until an article caught my eye. The headline blared, "Missionary Kills Local Villager." The account was of a missionary couple who moved into a house that was on a direct route from a high density suburb notorious for its crime. The missionary had obtained permission to have a shot gun to use as a deterrent to thieves. One evening a native had broken into his property and the watchman called the missionary. Both watchman and missionary rushed outside, the missionary with his shotgun. To his utter dismay, there was a local native with an axe in his hand raised above the native's head. The native started to advance towards the missionary. The missionary ordered him to put down the axe but he took no notice. It was maize season and the maize was already high. At the most critical moment of their stand-off, that watchman dropped the flashlight and everything went dark. The last image in the missionary's picture memory was the native with an axe above his head advancing towards him. Now, to complicate matters, this same missionary had been walking home one night a year previously. The missionary and his wife were jumped by a gang of natives demanding everything from them. In the ensuing scuffle, the missionary was hit on the side of his face with a rock breaking his cheek and chin bones. He ended up with a metal plate in his face. What a recipe for disaster this then became.

When the flashlight went out, the missionary froze. Suddenly, he heard a strong rustling noise in the maize. It sounded like more than just the wind blowing through the maize. The adrenalin was pumping in the missionary. He turned towards the opposite direction to the noise, pointed the gun in the air and fired. Shortly after firing, the watchman retrieved the flashlight and turned it on. He shone the light around but there was no evidence of the intruder. The missionary began making his way back to his house when the watchman called, "Bwana, you better come and see." The intruder was lying dead with one pellet of the twelve bore buried in his forehead. The noise in the maize had certainly not been from the native intruder.

Now, the newspaper explained none of this but accused the missionary of being reckless and irresponsible and he was arrested and in prison. As I read the corrupt article my immediate response was, "Oh Lord, what a fool..." I thought no further than that. The Holy Spirit immediately intervened and challenged me, "Are you sure that the worldly report is true? How do you dare to believe anything that the media presents as true? Check it out." With such a whipping, I called the wife and discovered the whole truth with the result that I mobilized assistance for the missionary and moved to get his bail release and ultimately, his acquittal. What a lesson that was for me to never believe anything the media has to say. Some years later, I myself became the victim of a massive smear campaign in the press and painfully learned first hand what the media are able to do. There is no accountability to anyone by the media where they are concerned.

For the vast majority of men the only source of information is the liberal humanist media that are owned and run by the same companies whose allegiance is to the ONE WORLD ORDER. Whether television, newspapers or magazines they churn out disinformation according to what their owners want. These media moguls all have an agenda and it is money, control and ultimately power. How on earth have we reached a position where people are so controlled by media opinions that they are no longer free thinkers but actually zombies? We are now living ANIMAL FARM. Liberals want to control everyone and everything. That evil, evil woman, Hilary Clinton who, as of this writing ought to be in prison for her crimes against the United States, has openly declared that she will deal with Congress and bypass them. What sane thinking American would want to vote for her? Of course, the zombies will because they have been programmed. The whole world, for instance, has been utterly programmed about GLOBAL WARMING by carbon emissions. No such a thing exists and this is proven by solid science. The evidence is available if anyone chooses to look for it but no, the media has done such an excellent brain washing job that as you have just read my statement, you might be thinking that I am ignorant and deceived and should you really continue to read on in this book. In the same way, 9/11 NEVER happened in the way the media presented it! The whole world saw only what the media wanted everyone to see. Where was the wreckage of the planes that crashed into the field, the Pentagon and the Twin Towers? Do you remember Lockerbie in Scotland? Do you recall the plane crash in eastern Ukraine? Bodies, luggage and possessions were strewn over a vast area. Plane parts were collected and almost the entire plane re-assembled to find the cause of the crash. Even the famous Malaysian flight 370 has produced more wreckage from the depths of the ocean than any of the 9/11 sites I have mentioned. How can the vast majority of people be so duped? Most saw only what the media wanted them to see. Play the same thing over and over and the machine will brain wash the masses who are no longer free thinkers but zombies. 9/11 was all in the name of population control and it worked. Every time I stand in a security line at an airport, I thank the system that was so successful that now I am inconvenienced all in the name of my personal safety which is actually control.

Now, let me flash some words and see what your IMMEDIATE response is as you read them. I am looking for your immediate response, mind you. This is what we call “word association.” Your immediate emotional response is dictated by memory stored in your brain. That memory is received through only what we see and what we hear. So, here goes. What do you think or feel with the following words. APARTHEID in South Africa in 1990. SAD-DAM HUSEIN. The ARAB SPRING. HAITI EARTHQUAKE. The DEATH SENTENCE. PALESTINIAN INTAFADA. The REFUGEES into Europe as of this writing. Our opinions and feelings on each is dictated to by a programmed response that has had an impact on us from a source that we are not able to verify but have willy-nilly believed. That is scary because it means I am the victim of brainwashing; the type of brainwashing in which I have given my permission for it to happen. It goes like this; “State, you protect me and in return, you control me.” You control my thinking, my movements and my decisions based on what is your opinion and therefore agenda, rather than any truth.

I am tired of the RACE epithet to manipulate and control the West. Yes, RACE is nothing but a western agenda planted by ugly western liberal humanists. I travel to the United States and all I hear about is race, race, race. I go to the United Kingdom and the whole society is dominated by race. I travel to Europe and most people are manipulated by the “BIG R.” I go home to Africa and nobody cares except a few politicians who are usually trained in the West and the humanist lawyers who promote the crap. The “BLACK LIVES MATTER” slogan was brilliantly demolished by Peggy Hubbard’s interview. <http://insider.foxnews.com/2015/08/25/grandmother-peggy-hubbard-takes-down-black-lives-matter-viral-video>. I am not supporting this because she is seemingly black against black but because she is a black lady speaking reality and not race. Please can we differentiate RACE versus REALITY. I am tired of black people in the west hating white people and blaming every white person for the slave trade. Yes, the slave trade was ugly to the depths of its being but I was not a slaver, am not a slaver and have NOTHING for which to apologize let alone pay. Not a single black person in the West has anyone to blame but themselves if they are not getting ahead. There are libraries, schools and colleges everywhere. There is money everywhere to be tapped if a black person really wants to get ahead. There is white apologetics everywhere that favours black people. There is big OPPORTUNITY everywhere but it takes work, sweat, tears and a fight. I was a refugee and I know what it took to re-build my life. I was a refugee because of black racism against whites but then, that is okay and acceptable. Nobody came to my rescue with free hand outs; with free anything. I did not run to the social welfare state because the God who created me told me that if I do not work, I do not eat. Bouncing a ball in the neighbourhood all day does not put food on the table. Is it racism to declare the reality of the fact that the majority of inmates in the prison system in USA are black? Is it racism to declare the reality that, before black mostly Moslem people from Somalia, Cameroon, Libya and Nigeria came to Finland, rape was almost unheard of but now it is a daily occurrence? Is it racist to walk into the law courts in Finland and look at the cases posted almost daily showing names like Ibraim, Hamid, Mohammed, Ahmed in rape case after rape case or cases of violence upon violence? Why is the media silent on such matters? Let us get REAL and stop burying our heads in the sand. Why as a white Finn in their own country are Finns not allowed to complain to the police that they were attacked by a gang of black men and beaten and when a Finn fights back and wins is told to drop the case or the police will take out a corresponding case against the same Finn? Is this race or reality? Why does the disgusting liberal press in Finland never publish names and colour when it comes to violence against Finns? This is NOT racism but reality. Why has the press refused to publish a single letter or opinion that says anything negative about refugees? Who ultimately controls and owns the media in Finland? Why is it that so many politicians especially at the local level are involved with the refugees? It is because they are all making money. By buying up old army bases, schools and hospitals and turning them into refugee centers local politicians – mostly Social Democrats – are making huge amounts of money. This is betrayal for personal gain. For the former Prime Minister to openly declare that Finland was merely a stepping stone to a bigger position in Europe and that he bankrupted Finland to win that favour is being a national traitor and not a hero.

I am so sick and tired of “Political Correctness” that dictates my thoughts and manipulates my decisions. It has become so bad and corrupt that being a Christian or holding beliefs that mirror anything the Bible says targets me as racist, bigoted, ignorant, uneducated or greedy. No, I hold to an absolute standard of an absolute God as recorded in His Word and such is hated and denigrated by liberal humanists who want social disorder, confusion and chaos in order to enrich themselves and rule the masses. Humanism has made man to be god in his own eyes and that everything is for the benefit of man and his comfort and glory. The world elite are on an agenda in this programme to reduce the world population from just over seven billion to five hundred million. This is clearly stated by the Georgia Guidestones. <http://www.radioliberty.com/stones.htm>

In his book, “Emerging Viruses: AIDS and Ebola” Dr. Leonard Horowitz a world renowned researcher provides a horrifying in-depth investigation into the origins of HIV and Ebola to reveal that orders were given for such horrible viruses to be manufactured in laboratories and used as part of a sinister plan to reduce world population. New evidence is emerging that in the West African outbreak of ebola, the virus was deliberately introduced into vaccines and inoculated into some of the West African population as a forerunner of what is to be done and the corresponding results. Evidence is freely available if you are open-minded enough to learn TRUTH. If the humanists of the world are able to execute such barbaric and terrifying terrorism with impunity against the world population what do a few million Finns matter in the big picture?

The invasion of Europe by millions of Moslem refugees and the whole RACE issue is a planned and orchestrated agenda by the world elite through their lackeys in the Oval office and the European Council. It is sinister, wicked and evil and nobody is entitled to have any opinion that goes against their agenda. So much for DEMOCRACY!

CHAPTER ONE

THE SONS OF NOAH

I feel desperately sorry for anyone who will not believe or accept a universal flood and a great Ark that saved Noah and his family and every living thing on planet earth. Out of the Ark came Noah, his wife, his three sons and their wives. The three sons of Noah, Shem, Ham and Japheth established the three divisions of all mankind on the earth. Race especially based on colour is not once mentioned and it is never mentioned in the Bible. We are all descended from one set of parents, Adam and Eve.

Noah blessed Shem above his brothers. It was through Shem that the promised seed would come to crush Satan and that seed may be traced back to Adam's son Seth and then through Shem to Abraham, Judah, and David until finally to Christ. Shem was the ancestor of all the sons of Eber. Eber is the root word for "Hebrew" and the word Shem means "name" suggesting that Noah believed Shem would be greater than his brothers, hence his lineage being covered first though he was not the eldest. Even the words Semitic and Semite are rooted in Shem's name.

Elam, son of Shem was the father of the Elamites, who settled east of Mesopotamia whilst Ashur gives us the name Assyria. Arphaxad is believed to be a root for "Chaldea," a region in southern Mesopotamia. It was through Arphaxad that Eber came. Many believe that the descendants of Shem's son Lud became the Lydians of Asia Minor whilst Aram settled in today's Syria.

Noah's firstborn son, Japheth, was the father of Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras. Their descendants became the people who lived to the north and west of Israel. After the Tower of Babel, they were scattered and speak the Indo-European languages of today.

The promise in the Word, “may Japheth live in the tents of Shem” almost surely means that Japheth was going to partake in both the spiritual and material blessings of Shem. God worked primarily with Shem whose descendants became Israel. With the process of time, Japheth would be incorporated in the faith of Israel and share Israel’s blessings. Such a prophecy is revealed in the Abrahamic Covenant, where God promised to bless all nations through Abraham’s seed. This completed fulfillment is found in Christ and in the gospel coming to the Gentiles as the descendants of Japheth. This happened with the inception of the Church. The word tells us speaking primarily of Japheth, “By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.”

Finally, we come to Ham whose son was cursed by Noah because of Ham’s sin. It would have been impossible for Noah to have directly cursed Ham, for in doing so, Noah would have been cursing himself. Ham had sex with his mother which is what uncovering the nakedness of his father meant. What was the special attraction between Ham and his mother? The Bible never tells us but the sin was great indeed as was Reuben’s similar sin. Ham had four sons, namely Cush, Mizraim which is the Hebrew for Egypt, Put, and Canaan. Egypt was later known as the “land of Ham.” The Hamitic peoples became godless, aggressive and exceedingly vengeful. The land of Palestine that was assigned to Ham’s son, Canaan fell under the control of the Egyptians for millennia. Ham then, is the father of the Arabians, Canaanites, and Africans, including the Egyptians. Canaan was to be a servant to Shem and this became fulfilled when the Israelites entered the land of Canaan and were to utterly subdue them. Of course, Israel was disobedient with the result that they are still plagued today by those same descendants.

Genesis chapter ten then, is commonly referred to as the “Table of Nations.” It is a list of some seventy nations whose patriarchal founders were directly descended from Noah through his three sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth. Of the seventy, twenty-six descended from Shem, thirty came from Ham and fourteen from Japheth. The chapter powerfully concludes, “These are the families of the sons of Noah, according to their genealogies, by their nations; and out of these the nations were separated on the earth after the flood.” It is easy to identify some of the nations recorded but others are not so clear. It must be remembered that, as a result of myriads of factors, much material has been covered and hidden. Wars, migrations, enslavement and language changes have made it almost impossible in many cases - apart obviously from the major nations - to identify who the modern descendants of the sons of Noah really are. We must also never forget that it was in the days of Peleg, after the Tower of Babel, that the continents drifted apart carrying with them peoples to the far-flung ends of the earth. The Bible makes no mistakes and it does well to remember that, though we might not be able to clearly delineate peoples today, the family of nations is recorded for posterity.

The Bible does not clearly reveal to us the origin of the different “races” or skin colors in humanity. Actually, there is only one race recorded in the Bible and it is the human race. Within this human race is diversity in skin color and other physical characteristics. There is so much speculation on the subject of colour. Some say that when God confused the languages at the tower of Babel, He also created racial diversity. Perhaps this is possible so that God made genetic changes to humanity. This would enable different peoples to live under different and often harsh ecological conditions. The whole subject of race and skin is, however not even suggested in the Biblical record of the Tower of Babel and therefore dangerous to make such assumptions.

At the Tower of Babel then, when the different languages came into existence, it would be natural for groups that spoke one language to flow together. Consequently, as small groups began to multiply, the gene pool for each group would be drastically reduced. Inbreeding took place with the result that in time characteristic features would emerge in each group. Genetic codes would be developed and as a result, ultimately a specific DNA would emerge.

When we speak of colour, it is quite possible that Adam and Eve possessed the genes to produce black, brown, and white offspring. Perhaps this was God's way of having diversity or perhaps it all began with the mark on Cain. Often, a mixed-race couple will have children that vary in color. Noah and his wife, His three sons and their wives might well have been of different races and therefore carried the genetic pool to produce different colours. It is possible that Noah's wife was of a different race to Noah and hence, Ham's attraction to her. But, whatever the explanation, the Bible does not lend absolute truth and clarity to the whole subject which means it is not of great importance to the Lord. The most compelling aspect of this question that is so huge, is that we are all the same race, all created by the same God, all descended from the same father and mother and most importantly, all created for the same purpose and that is to love and glorify the Lord our maker and to continually bless His name.

What also emerges as we read the word and see God's amazing purpose for the multi-gifted, multi-membered body of Christ is that we all have a calling and a function. Membership of the BODY OF CHRIST is not signing on the dotted line or having a certificate but of being a functioning member of a living organism. It appears that such was also what the Lord had in mind for the sons of Noah and their descendants, namely a multi-gifted, multi-talented and diverse humanity all supplying and complementing one another. To point out differences then, in such diversity does not mean RACISM but is simply REALITY. Of course, and I will be the first to acknowledge, that sin, greed and the worship of the creation more than the creator have convoluted God's amazing plan.

CHAPTER TWO

IDENTIFYING WITH RACE

The greatest issue in the discussion of race is to understand that there is only one race as recorded in the Bible and it is the human race all descended from Adam and Eve. Whether people are Jews, Asians, Caucasians, Indians, Africans or Arabs they are not different races but different ethnicities of the same human race. Most importantly, all human beings are created equally in the image and likeness of God as recorded in Genesis, “And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.” (Gen 1:26-28) This is clearly re-affirmed by the New Testament where we are told, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.” (John 3:16-19)

God shows no partiality or favoritism when it comes to ethnicity and we are not entitled to do so either. James in his Epistle clearly describes those who discriminate as “judges with evil thoughts.” Rather, we are to love our neighbors as ourselves. I will explore more about that in another chapter and clearly define neighbours. Throughout the Old Testament, the Old Covenant, though God emphatically hated mixture and divided humanity into two groups: Israelites and Gentiles. God's whole design was for Israel to be a kingdom of priests, ministering to the Gentile nations by living example. This was realized when all the world came up to Israel during the reign of Solomon and when Sheba saw the splendour of the Kingdom there was no spirit left in her. This is precisely what we are told the church is meant to be in Peter's Epistle; a kingdom of priests who are not of this world but live for the Lord and to glorify His name.

All forms of superiority, prejudice, discrimination and racism are an affront to the work of Christ on the cross and His completed work at the right hand of God. We are commanded to love as Christ loves and to be impartial as He is. Racism has been a plague of mankind from the days of Noah and there needs to be repentance and forgiveness on all sides. Ephesians commands us, "And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you." (Eph 4:32) Galatians makes clear, "For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And, if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." (Gal. 3:28, 29) Of course, we cannot simply take such Scriptures out of context and misinterpret them. In Christ, there is neither Jew nor Greek...

Now the big word, ethnocentrism is the belief in the superiority of any particular race or ethnic group as being superior to all others, thereby making that race or group THE STANDARD by which all others are measured. Such is pride and is really racism and is sin. We know that Jesus did not die for any particular race of people. By His death He purchased all who will come to Him. John says, "for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.” (Rev. 5:9, 10) Israelites were ethnocentric because of being God’s chosen people. God’s choice was not based on their merit, but on His mercy and grace for He made clear to them, “For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth. The LORD did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people: But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.” (Deu. 7:6-8) God’s choice of Jacob over Esau is a clear point in case of the operation of grace. God did not hate Esau but “loved him less” in the matter of choice. Likewise, the Church is to be a separated nation called out of darkness into His marvelous light. We are a chosen generation and royal priesthood. This sets us apart in God’s mercy and grace and therefore makes us a special people to Him but not to be filled with pride or arrogance towards any others. All of us need to remember from where we have come.

Having said all of this, I need to temper it with certain conditions. Science is able to establish concrete differences in the make-up of racial groups and therefore their operations. The problem is that weaknesses in one group have been exploited by others. In the whole great picture of the world population, there are thinkers, innovators and doers. Is it racist to say that one of the sons of Noah and his descendants were of a certain group with characteristics over his brethren? Is it racism or realism to state that Ham’s son, Cainaan, was cursed by his grandfather to become woodcutters and water carriers? How is it that I have been to the most remote villages in Africa where never a white man had been and one of the first testimonies from those natives is, “We are a cursed people!” I have asked, “Where on earth do you get that notion? Who told you that?”

“Nobody told us,” they have replied. “We just know it!”

“Well,” I have replied, “all men are cursed.”

“No, no, no,” they have laughed. “We are cursed because we are black.”

“Okay, if you believe that, I am here to break that curse by the power of the blood of Jesus.”

Is it racism or realism to say that most of the descendants of Shem are a Godless people of disorder, confusion and chaos who love to worship gods of their own creation? Is it racism or realism to state that white people are proud and arrogant because they have been thinkers that gave most of the inventions to the world?

What science, medicine and sociology cannot tell us is the depths of the impact of sin and a subject that few want to hear about, namely the impact of demons on the nations. Are any peoples immune from such powers? Absolutely they are not. The functions of the human body which is not evil in and of itself, are three, namely to reproduce, to defend and to nourish itself. When men are in disorder because of sin these functions become corrupted by lust and demonic activity. Most people even in the Church refuse to accept such truth. Corruption of the body originates in the spirit and the soul and this may happen even with a true believer. Consequently, reproduction when corrupted becomes sexual immorality. Why is it that the vast volume of sexual perversion and pornography has come out of the white people of the United States with their goddess of fertility, Lady Liberty? Hollywood in all its forms is perpetrator of this together with violence, science fiction and horror movies and we have all witnessed such evil. Compare Nollywood and Bollywood to Hollywood and we get totally different genres of movies with real life themes. Hollywood has taken away from the world, innocence, beauty, justice and honour and has presented the villain as hero.

Everything in nature has the God-given right to defend itself.

Once however, men become corrupted, the defense turns to aggression and therefore war. No peoples on the face of the earth have ever been immune to war just as the animals of the jungles are not immune from the same. No one people group may in any way claim they are “more civilized” than another group when it comes to fighting and wars. Finally, nourishment turns into gluttony. In Africa, people eat to live whilst in Europe and America, people live to eat. The daily food wastage in the western world could feed most of Africa. What a crime before the Lord. The lust and greed of western nations has corrupted the entire earth and these nations are now going to face payback.

In India, Africa and the Moslem world especially, babies are still a blessings and abortion is not socially acceptable. Of course, in some countries of Africa like South Africa, western impact has resulted in this wickedness being practiced. The question is this? Which people group is more evil when it comes to murdering its own population? Abortion has always been practiced but on the scale of today, never, and abortion on demand and as a method of birth control is a western evil. This evil together with gay sex has been exported to the world by the power of the dollar and euro. Of course there have been gays in all nations but to export this corruption of God’s creation is to turn the whole earth into Sodom and Gomorrah.

On that important issue I must bring to clear light the issue of homosexuality. My niece studied medicine at the prestigious Kansas City University school of medicine. I remember her coming back from classes quite moved one day. They had been studying the brains of “normal” people versus those of gay people. She described how there was a radical difference that was common and clearly evident in the brains of all the gay subjects examined. Yes, of course there is. Long before Dr. Watson won the Nobel Prize in Medicine together with Francis Crick and Maurice Wilkins for discovering the double helix structure of DNA, that old serpent, Satan and the Devil knew all about DNA and how to corrupt it. Any human being that is raped or sexually molested will inherit a demon and that demon is easily able to alter the chromosomes and DNA of the person they violate creating an identity crisis. When the head of the gay and lesbian movement stood on a platform with the then President of the United States, Bill Clinton, and declared that it was their agenda to sodomize every man and boy in America he should have been instantly arrested. Such evil speech unchallenged, set the tone for the victory of GLBT and the homosexual marriage decision of the Supreme Court. What an affront this is to God and His Word.

Now, Dr. James Watson, the 79-year-old geneticist said he was “inherently gloomy about the prospect of Africa” because “all our social policies are based on the fact that their intelligence is the same as ours – whereas all the testing says not really.” He said he hoped that everyone was equal, but countered that “people who have to deal with black employees find this not true.” The western media had an absolute frenzy over this and other statements made by the eminent doctor who lost his job and had all his speaking engagements cancelled. But, the fact is that the western media simply had a frenzy and failed to accurately report on what the doctor was saying and why. Is the doctor truly racist or based upon his DNA studies alone, has he come up with something that bears out further investigation? He made comments about sex and women based on his DNA testing and not on anthropological observation. Do such comments have substance and are perhaps reality rather than racist, sexist and anti-feminist? In today’s world and even in the church, to state God’s Biblical ORDER that the man is the head of the woman in the marriage is sexist and not politically correct. But, this is God’s ORDER and HIS GOVERNMENTAL system.

CHAPTER THREE

MULTICULTURALISM

Multiculturalism as the western world understands it in its current form is certainly not of God. God scattered the people at the Tower of Babel and gave each ethnic group their own language. The primary reason for this was because in building the Tower men were defying the living God and exalting themselves to be as God. Furthermore, God had promised with the Covenant of the Rainbow that He would never again flood the whole earth. In building such a Tower, Nimrod was in disbelief and sought to lift himself above any further flood, thereby disbelieving God. Such arrogance and pride demanded God's intervention.

What the Lord did at Babel, he brought full circle on the Day of Pentecost. There was a representative out of every nation under heaven. When the Holy Spirit fell, the hundred and twenty were all baptized in the Holy Spirit and fire and each spoke in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance. The multitudes gathered from the ends of the earth for the Feast of Pentecost heard the hundred and twenty speak in their own language in which they were born and the disciples were speaking the wonderful works of God. What an amazing work of Holy Spirit unity this was. Since that day, men have tried to unify the church through humanism and multiculturalism and it simply does not work. Social and political efforts to enforce unity and cultural diversity within any people group is simply not Biblical. The Bible has far more to say on the subject of authority than multiculturalism and the Bible is certainly against any notion that all religions are equal. Of course God values people are diverse and there will be people of every nation, colour and language in heaven worshipping the Lord as one.

Conforming to any culture or tradition that violates the Word of God must be an anathema to all Christians. The Word of God remains the absolute standard of God and must be accepted as such by men. Christians are required to obey God before obeying men. When therefore, laws or cultural norms directly conflict with Biblical truth we are obligated to resist and disobey such immoral laws. Multiculturalism in the western world is taken to extremism where anything goes and no particular viewpoint is seen as actually correct, moral or true based on an absolute standard. The idea that all religious ideals are true and God is whoever and whatever a man wants him to be and are equally valid is an anathema and out of order with true Biblical teaching. Jesus boldly asserted, "I am the way, the truth and the life. No man cometh to the Father but by me." (John 14:6) Paul emphasizes, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus." (1Tim. 2:5) Christians cannot be a part of any kind of multiculturalism that embraces spiritual error. Warning Timothy, Paul declares, "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." (2 Tim 4:3, 4)

True practical multiculturalism is an expression of God's creativity. But, it cannot be at the expense of other peoples. For the most part, immigrants to the United States have gone there to carve out a new life for themselves. They did not have an agenda of imposing their culture and norms on the general society as do ethnic communities today. Political correctness has imposed on all the enforcement of multiculturalism that has no Biblical foundation. The Bible does not support the transformation of multiculturalism into philosophical ideals. Christians are required to be loving, respectful, and tolerant but, at the same time, are commanded not to participate in the sins of any culture at all. "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." (Rom 12:2) Whilst believers are indeed meant to be loving and tolerant it certainly does not mean that they must accept the "anything goes" mentality of the political elite with their agenda of world domination and control. Many a missionary has come to destruction by embracing the demonic cultural norms of the peoples they are meant to convert. I know in Africa that the Masai will offer to embrace missionaries and their teachings if those missionaries will only but once drink the blood of the Masai cattle with them. Many have done so and lost all their Godly spiritual power – if they ever had any – for the sake of compromise. Such compromise actually means accepting some foreign demons. Early missionaries and even many today still go to Moslem lands and are deceived into believing that Allah is God because they are told and believe that Allah means “highest god.” Yes, Allah was the highest of forty gods worshipped by the Q’resh tribe from which Mohammed heralded. But, Allah has three daughters and no son according to Moslems. How on earth can Allah then be God, the Father of the Lord Jesus Christ? But no, in a desire to be embraced by native peoples, many missionaries in turn have embraced the multiculturalism of a wicked and evil religious system.

How are believers meant to relate in a multicultural society? Most importantly by not compromising and by not being conformed to this world. People are not meant to come to Finland and impose their cultural norms and ways upon Finns. They are not to be “tolerated” and “understood” because they come from war zones of, actually, their own making and so bring their aggressive ways with them. Refugees must not arrive threatening, raping, pillaging and destroying what it has taken years to build. Nobody has the right to arrive with a demanding attitude that the societies into which they wish to be integrated must submit and conform to them in any way whether regards food, social order, religion or any other norms. Indeed, one should be kind and courteous but on the other hand, every Finn has the right to protect their own. AND, herein lies a huge issue. In the face of overwhelming evidence of the raping, pillaging, destruction and even death in Finnish society by refugees the Government of Finland has failed to safeguard its own citizens in an effort to be politically correct and accommodating. Vast sums of money are spent on refugees to the neglect of the very citizens who pay the bills. Finnish citizens cannot even begin to claim what refugees are given because if they are not given they threaten, riot and destroy.

When the government of any nation fails to adequately protect their citizens, then it is an IMMORAL GOVERNMENT. When the laws of the nation no longer protect their citizens, they are immoral laws. When my wife, my daughter or my friend is molested and raped by marauding gangs of thugs and I have no means of protection and the law enforcement of the nation are incapable or unwilling to do anything about it because of political correctness, then I must make a choice of my own. It is good to note that the Supreme Court of Finland has finally lifted the ban on pepper spray. Such is long overdue. Every Finnish woman must have the right to some form of serious self protection in the face of AN IMMORAL GOVERNMENT that fails to protect its citizens. Every woman should be permitted to carry a taser if not a pistol. Such is what the society has come to because the EU with its foolish refugee program and very little screening has permitted much riffraff from Nigeria, Somalia, Afghanistan, North Africa and Iraq to settle unchecked within its borders. Liberal humanists with their social democratic political systems are clearly all about self-aggrandizement and personal enrichment at the expense of the people. I personally simply cannot accept the policy of multiculturalism in its present form. I am certainly not against refugees. I am most certainly not racist and I am most certainly not against helping people in need. BUT, I am against foolishness, I am against manipulation, I am against the agenda that is using refugees and asylum seekers to keep social democratic political systems in place throughout Europe. The elite sit in their ivory palaces of luxury manipulating national situations whilst being far removed from the reality on the ground and unaffected by it.

CHAPTER FOUR

JUDGMENT ON THE CHURCH

The Bible is very clear that judgment begins in the house of the Lord. But, if the church will not judge itself, then it will be judged. “For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?” (1 Pe 4:17) Those who disobey the Gospel of God are wretched, miserable, poor and blind. God describes them through Paul as, “Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, Backbiters, haters of God, spiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, Without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.” (Rom 1:29-32) This sounds pretty much like the world in the day of Noah and is an exact picture of Europe today.

When Israel of old broke covenant with God and fell into idolatry and spiritual adultery, God not only allowed but often deliberately sent the armies of the heathen against them to judge them. Ultimately, the Assyrians took the ten tribes of Israel captive and later, the Babylonians took Judah captive for their idolatry. The western world has worshipped the gods of gold and silver; comfort and ease. The very fact that one of the symbols of Europe is the whore riding the beast is nothing less than blasphemy. “And the angel said unto me, ‘Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.’” (Rev 17:7) That the Anti-christ system will emerge out of Europe leaves me in no doubt. To get there is going to take quite much maneuvering and a great deal of heartache and bloodshed. That European countries were given a mighty mandate of the Lord to preach the Gospel to the ends of the earth is simply not debatable. God did not say that He would bring the heathen to the saved. On the contrary, He commanded us to go to all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature. The nonsense that I have heard stated by churches in Finland that God has brought the heathen to Europe to hear the Gospel has no Biblical foundation whatsoever. That some refugees will undoubtedly get saved is not a subject for discussion but I certainly do not see the wave of refugees invading Europe as coming to get saved and sent of God. On the contrary, I see the wave of refugees as the hand of God's judgment because Europeans did not fulfill the mandate of God in preaching the Gospel to these peoples in their own lands. The rise of Daesh is a primary example and Daesh has engineered the refugee crisis in order to infiltrate Europe under the cover of the masses that have arrived.

Now, the Bible needs to be our precedent in all things and Europe certainly needs to hear the Word of the Lord in the light of the invasion that is taking place. "The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans." (Jer. 50:25) He is God who moves the nations and He is God who brings judgment on wayward peoples. It took four hundred years for the cup of iniquity of the Amorites to fill up before the Lord might judge them. That is a very long time in man's eyes for God to be patient but judgment ultimately came. There is no doubt that God is indignant with Europe and her Godlessness and nobody may blame him. Europe deserves a visitation of the Lord to shake it awake and give Europeans one last opportunity to serve the true, living God, father of the Lord Jesus. Through His servant Habakkuk, God draws even closer to the point by boldly declaring, "For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling places that are not theirs." (Hab 1:6) Who, today are the Chaldeans? They are mostly the Syrians and Iraqis. This is very interesting indeed. It is foolish and naive for anyone in Europe to downplay what is happening in the pillaging, raping, terrorizing and destruction caused by the invasion of the Chaldeans accompanied with other of their hordes. Only a fool can deny the excesses that have been experienced in Europe since it has been invaded. That the refugees are a war machine sweeping through Europe, cannot be denied. They are a bitter and vengeful people who are literally marching through the European nations possessing places at will and terrorizing the population with their arrogant and intimidating behaviour. This is God's judgment on Europeans for forsaking Him and worshipping idols. Even more, I truly believe it to be God's judgment upon Europe for the European attitude towards Israel. If Europeans want to be pro-terrorist; pro-Palestinian then God will send their brethren to show Europeans exactly what they are like. They are a lawless, aggressive, demanding and terrorizing people who know no restraint.

These Chaldeans have literally snaked their way through Europe stopping where they fancy. They rape and pillage as they go and nobody can deny this. They move into ghettos in the cities they invade and establish "no go" zones where even the police of the nations are afraid to enter. How on earth has it come to this? The answer is simple. The Lord has given humanistic Europeans over to believing a lie because they live a lie. They are blinded. Humanism has become the gospel of Europe and indeed, the West. Political correctness is the order of the day but it is set by Godless leaders whose only standard is get rich and control the masses. So many social democrats are making huge sums of money out of the refugees. The director of refugees in Sweden owns property that is being used as refugee centers. The same is happening in many European countries and this conflict of interests is corruption of the highest order. How dare the European Union that has never once balanced their books in all the years of their existence point to corruption in African countries? Is super corruption not the former Finnish prime minister, Katainen, using that position only to get a better job in Europe and having the audacity to admitting it? Man is wicked and selfish whoever he is. The Chaldeans have arrived and are systematically terrorizing Europe city by city and village by village. They have quickly learned to play the RACE card to get whatever they want. What on earth do Syrians know about race and human rights in Syria? Let them shout those slogans to Bashir al-Assad or Daesh and see what happens to them. But, they arrive in Europe and start spouting words that bring Europeans to their knees in fear. The fear of being labelled racist is perhaps the greatest fear in Europe. Is this God's payback for the evil parts of the colonial past? Perhaps it is part of the answer in the natural.

But, the real reason the Chaldeans have arrived in Europe who God calls, "that bitter and hasty nation," is because Europe has forsaken God and the foundations of the TRUTH of God's Word upon which modern Europe was founded. Humanism has replaced the Word of the Lord and become the BIBLE of Europe. Now, Europeans will pay the consequences for their Godlessness and it is simply this; the Chaldeans shall "march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling places that are not theirs." It is amazing how intimidated Europe has become in the face of the onslaught of the Chaldeans who have never changed from millennia ago. They are a terrible and terrorizing people. Why on earth should any European nation open their doors to such? But, Europe is powerless to stop the influx for many reasons not least being the RACE issue.

CHAPTER FIVE

ZOMBIES: THE LIBERAL AGENDA

There is nothing that terrifies the ruling elite more than clear thinking middle class people. The latest statistic published by BBC and other media outlets is that only sixty four (yes, that is literally 64) individual people own as much wealth in this world as the combined wealth of over three and a half BILLION or half the world's population. How on earth has this happened? It really does not matter about how but what does matter is that we are currently living George Orwell's "ANIMAL FARM" and the human race have become zombies who dance to the beat of the liberal humanist super elite. It only takes one to do a little research to discover that all the media empires are owned and controlled by the same group of people and they are UGLY to say the least. Education has fallen into the hands of liberal humanists with their "mother earth" agenda. The world population is to be decreased from seven and-a-half billion people to some five hundred million. While the super elite live their luxurious lives outside of all the dynamics of the modern world, the masses are left to their experimentation and ultimate control. You may be assured that the elite never eat any kind of GM foods, use chlorinated water or fluoride and worry about fossil fuels and global warming as they fly their private jets and live in their mountain retreats. Their super wealth buys and sells anything at their will and they own all the transportation systems, major food production, weapons manufacturing, pharmaceuticals, energy production and distribution and the media. Above all, they own all of the major banks including the World Bank and IMF. What a recipe this is for super control of the world. They create all the wars out of which they make fortunes by arming and financing all sides. They ferment racial issues and one of their great agendas is the abolition of the white race. What is currently happening in Europe is a cleverly engineered plan of the elitists to infiltrate Europe and bring her down. They have the same agenda for the United States and God help America if elitist Hilary Clinton becomes the next president.

One of their greatest agendas has been the infiltration, corruption and division of the church. The elitists owe allegiance to nobody but Satan with whom they regularly meet and who directs their operations. You call this conspiracy and so it is. The takeover of the world has been the greatest conspiracy and part of the reason the elitists are winning is because most people have been socialized into believing that such a group of people with their wicked agenda cannot possibly exist let alone operate. Sadly, the prince of this world has deceived even believers and brought them under his spell. Anyone who has the power to stand against the devil and his minions must be destroyed from within or without.

Now, liberal humanism is the indoctrination of the masses with the idea that the end of man is his comfort and ease; that man has a RIGHT to enjoy all things of “mother earth” but at the same time we are all obligated to protect “mother earth” even to dying for this cause; and that ultimately man is his own god. Such warped belief is in complete contradiction to the Bible that teaches that man was created by God, for the GLORY of God and his whole end is to glorify the Lord. Liberal humanism is darkness and the glory of the Lord is light. Under humanism one has no eternal purpose whilst the glory of God offers an eternity with a loving Creator. Liberal humanism is oppressive and cruel while obedience to God is liberating and offers eternal security. Liberal humanists have no restraints and are the most selfish and self-centered people to live on the planet. They care only about personal comfort and ease and their humanitarian endeavours are nothing but a huge sham and cover-up for their true agendas which is the acquisition of money and therefore power. Their control of the minds of westerners in particular has been a cleverly crafted plan especially since the end of World War II. They have indoctrinated the educational systems of western kids for four generations now so that very few people are free thinking. Liberal humanist agendas have infiltrated the churches so that believers think as the world and operate as the world. Modern translations of the Bible are all part of this programme to rob the church of any and all power. The church is like the proverbial frog. Place the frog in a pot of water and slowly boil it and the creature will remain in that water and die. Drop a frog into already hot water and it will spring out. The church has been systematically infiltrated and corrupted for the last eighty years until it is devoid of power and has no voice in the nations. The humanist elite have cleverly divided the church and thereby, rule it. Entire denominations have come under their spell so that to be a Bible believing fundamentalist is to be labeled ignorant, uneducated, controlling and above all, an enemy of the state.

But, here is truth. Because the western nations have turned away from God, God has given them over to believing lies. There is no longer any absolute standard of right and wrong or of truth. Nationals believe leaders who are absolute liars and proved to be so. Hilary Clinton is a prime example of supporting a leader who is so corrupt that it is frightening. For favours, CEOs it is reported were required to pay huge sums of donation money into the Clinton Foundation. Hilary Clinton's "lost" or accidentally "deleted" e-mails on her own server instead of the secure government server is a federal crime but she has not even been prosecuted or slammed by the media. She makes a joke of some 30,000 missing e-mails many of which had to do with national secrets. For the same crime the USA is desperate to get their hands on Snowden and put him away forever. Yet, people believe in such a lying piece of work and support her enormously. The former British prime minister, Tony Blair ought also to be in prison for his utter corruption in the war with Iraq. Vast numbers of the British population still believe he is a hero. Some hero that is!

The most frightening part of the humanist agenda is the fact that the state now owns all children and therefore the next generations. Biblical values are no longer acceptable. Parents are no longer free to discipline their children according to those Biblical values and if they do, they will have them removed by the social welfare. For instance, one is a greater criminal in Scandinavia for spanking one's child than for raping a woman. How on earth have we reached such a situation? It is called systematic indoctrination. The West hated the Russians and Chinese for such tactics but western governments are far worse at indoctrination than ever the communists were. The reason for this is that western governments have successfully convinced their peoples that all forms of control are for "their protection" and the masses have given the elitists the authority and right to implement super laws of control. A day's shopping in London means that you will be photographed some forty times. Almost all humans on the planet are now on some data base. Such would have been unthinkable twenty years ago. The social media networks are evil to say the least as they pry into every detail of people's personal lives and they accomplish this as part of human rights.

Human Rights are the watchwords of liberal humanists. It is my RIGHT to protest, smash windows, set on fire buildings and cars and stone law enforcement officers for anything that is on the humanist agenda. It is my right to murder my unborn baby, sit on my fat backside and expect the state to look after me and to generally be a leech on society whilst others pay for the luxury. But, if I dare to protest against immigration or Islamization then I am labelled a bigot, racist and vermin that needs to go to prison at least or be shot at best. The police will raid my home, attack me with water cannon and rubber bullets and add me to their data base as a possible terrorist. If I am a liberal humanist, it is my human right to spray paint buildings, smash somebody's windshield or take somebody's property. Then if I am arrested, nothing will happen except perhaps a warning from the judge. A good fine or prison time is not even a consideration because the elite want lawlessness and confusion. Why? Because in the midst of mayhem and confusion, the elitists rule and reign. As an employer, the system is already against you and you are not only seen but clearly labelled as an abuser of people, a suppresser of human rights and greedy for gain at the expense of others. This is all to destroy the free thinking small entrepreneurs because they are the backbone of society. Society must be dependent on the multinational corporations that are controlling and abusive because they are elitist. But, what about employers' rights? It is no longer my right to dismiss an insubordinate employee; it is no longer my right to fire a thieving employee; it is no longer my right to discipline a lazy worker because all of these things DEHUMANIZE them. I have had a thieving employee who was locked in prison by the police take me to the labour office and sue me for lost wages whilst he was in prison. How absolutely ludicrous it is in the European Union that a murdering criminal locked in prison still has the right to vote. This is utter nonsense. Who made such laws? Liberal humanists; social democrats who want the allegiance of the mob. The Roman emperors knew only too well that if you distributed free bread to the mob in the arena and then entertained them, you were guaranteed their support. Nothing has changed over the last two thousand years. This is the exact modus operandi of the social elite today and it still works powerfully.

It suits the humanist elite for masses of Syrians, Iraqis, Afghans, Somalians and other malcontents many of whom are terrorists to flood into Europe and create mayhem by screaming human rights and racism. It was the elitists who created the problem in the Middle East in the first place to have just such a displacement of humanity in order to ferment mass confusion and ultimately, super control. Now these refugees are swarming into Europe and America like locusts demanding their human rights without even being citizens. What is more ludicrous is that brainwashed liberal humanists think it is quite in order for such lazy social leeches to be given the best for which they pay nothing and even worse is the endorsement of the church in supporting what is totally anti-Biblical teaching. "If a man does not work, he does not eat." All over Europe and the west, the influx of these refugees has brought down standards, created confusion and established the destabilization of society. With the masses demanding the same as everyone else – for which they pay nothing – the hard working tax payer is expected to dish out huge sums of money. Everyone knows that such a scenario cannot continue indefinitely. When food becomes scarce, ideologies will fly out of the window.

We have a recipe for revolution and super strife in the west. It comes back to the violation of God's Word. White Westerners are greedy and selfish. Everyone has wanted the American dream; the European dream; the wealth, comfort and ease dream. White western people have shot their selves in the feet. The stringent laws in every area of life are clearly revealed in the super ridiculous building codes of western society. I just do not understand how anyone in construction today can even keep up with new building codes. They are ludicrous. In the name of safety, it is actually super control and all designed to fleece hard working people of more and more of their hard earned cash. Westerners have only wanted a maximum of two children in order to maintain their selfish lifestyles. It is a known fact that once the number of children drop to 1.3 children per mother then national population is in decline and nothing will be able to revive it. Most western countries have fallen to 0.9 births per mother and some as low as 0.6! This means that those nations can never revive. The white man is a dying race through his own selfish stupidity and flagrant violation of God's Word. Added to this scenario is the fact that the vast majority of western liberal humanists all want to study for degrees and get good paying jobs because that is what the western dream is all about. The problem is who will clean toilets? Who will mow the lawn? Who will pick the produce in the fields? Who will do all the dirty work? The elitists who again created the problem have now successfully indoctrinated the masses that it is their right to import the uneducated from foreign countries to do these menial tasks. The problem is that the uneducated make babies; the uneducated stay in the country and do not return home and one day, the uneducated will become citizens with the right to vote, change the laws and change the society structure. Social democrats sitting in their ivory palaces see all of this and abuse the system to get those uneducated votes and remain in power in order to perpetuate a vicious and evil cycle of control.

The hated British MP Enoch Powell was a highly educated and highly decorated British politician. Wikipedia writes, “Powell was renowned for his oratorical skills and his maverick nature. Despite initially welcoming Commonwealth immigrants, on 20 April 1968, he made a controversial speech in Birmingham in which he warned his audience of what he believed would be the consequences of continued unchecked immigration from the Commonwealth to Britain. Above all, it is an allusion to the Roman poet Virgil towards the end of the speech which has been remembered, giving the speech its colloquial name:

As I look ahead, I am filled with foreboding. Like the Roman, I seem to see ‘the River Tiber foaming with much blood’. That tragic and intractable phenomenon which we watch with horror on the other side of the Atlantic but which there is interwoven with the history and existence of the States itself, is coming upon us here by our own volition and our own neglect. Indeed, it has all but come. In numerical terms, it will be of American proportions long before the end of the 20th century. Only resolute and urgent action will avert it even now.

The Times declared it “an evil speech,” stating, “This is the first time that a serious British politician has appealed to racial hatred in this direct way in our postwar history.”

Racism or realism is the question? In light of the race riots in London, Birmingham, Manchester and other parts of the UK in the 21st Century, was Enoch Powell wrong after almost fifty years?

CHAPTER SIX

ISLAMIZATION

The great civil war in Sudan throughout much of the 20th Century was not Christian versus Moslem or black versus any other race but simply that the African South Sudanese refused to be Islamized. There are some basic truths about Islam that must be understood before there can be clarity of understanding and therefore positioning. There are some 1.2 billion Moslems on planet earth and that figure amounts to one-sixth of the world population. That is four times the population of the USA.

Allah is not God. The Q'resh Tribe from which Mohammed came worshipped some forty deities and the highest of them was called Allah. It is for this reason that Moslems call him the HIGHEST God but Allah is really a demon prince. Early missionaries were told by Moslems that Allah is the god above all gods but they failed to explain that this was the god adopted by Mohammed as the god of the new religion, Islam. Allah, the god of the Q'resh tribe was to be worshipped by all who converted and became Moslems. Failure to adopt Allah as god of gods meant instant death usually by beheading. Early missionaries failed to properly research these facts and so accepted the Islamic explanation that Allah is the highest god. This has created great confusion amongst Christians until the present time. In Arabic, there is no word for God, the Father of the Lord Jesus Christ. There is only Allah but this demon prince is certainly NOT the Most High spoken of by Daniel the prophet. In the Indonesian translation of the Bible, God is translated as Allah. What a heinous corruption of TRUTH. Even Moslems in Indonesia are incensed that Christians use their word, Allah, for our God stating that they certainly do not serve the same God. Now, Moslems believe that Allah has three daughters and no son. It is therefore an anathema for Moslems that Christians believe that God had only one son, the Lord Jesus Christ and there was none other and there is “no name given among men whereby we must be saved except the name of Jesus.” He is, “the way, the truth and the life.” He is, “the light of the world,” and He is, “the first and the last.” Any Moslem who accepts Christ must be delivered of the SPIRIT (or demon) OF ANTICHRIST and specifically renounce both Mohammed and Allah in order to be totally free and serve Jesus with real power. Without that renunciation, no Moslem will have any kind of Christian authority.

Now Islam is a religion of lies. Everything in Islam is a lie. It is not about telling a lie but of living one. All non-Moslems are infidels and all infidels according to the Koran are to be executed. It is a religion of aggression and must be extended by the means of holy war or jihad. The only absolute guarantee of any Moslem going to paradise in their thinking and teaching is if he dies in a holy war or jihad. Consequently, it is heroic in the eyes of Islam to strap a bomb around your chest and detonate it in a shopping mall. By killing infidels one is a hero and not a villain. The great Satan to the Moslems is America closely followed by Europe. Rape of infidel women, honour killings and Sharia Law are all to be practiced upon western countries. Liberal Humanists scream for the right of Moslems to have their mosques and their sharia courts but just try to build a church in Saudi Arabia or openly pray to Jesus and you will be instantly executed under Sharia Law. It is not my intent to discuss all the evils of Islam – and there are so many – but to focus on the fact that Islam has an agenda to take over the world. This should have been the vision of the Church but sadly, we have lost our way in the passion for material wealth and the desire to become a respectable corporation or enterprise.

Revelation chapter 13 describes two beasts. One is the Antichrist and the second is the false prophet. The false prophet comes out of the false religion and the false religion is Islam. It is shameful that Islam is placed with Christianity and Judaism as one of the three great religions for the god of Islam is certainly not the same Elohim, Yahweh of both Judaism and Christianity. Islam believes that in the last days, there will arise an Imam - the Twelfth Imam directly descended from Mohammed – who will bring world peace out of major international chaos, confusion and disorder. The Moslems have confused this beast with the Antichrist. It must always be remembered that Mohammed was an illiterate, uneducated toy boy for rich Khadija. He was indoctrinated by a renegade Catholic priest and a rebel Rabbi from whom he learned that Jesus is not the son of God. Mohammed had numerous encounters with demon spirits called Jinns and such is the foundation of Islam. Moslems will openly talk about serving and worshipping god, but which god? They are a lawless people who serve a lawless religion of hate and violence. The Koran should actually be banned in Europe as a HATE CRIMES book but humanism with its double standards will never allow such a concept.

“The brutality of beheading is intended, even delightful to God and His Prophet,” wrote Muhajir in his book The Theology of Jihad, more generally referred to as the Theology of Bloodshed. His writings provided religious cover for the most brutal excesses, and also for the killing of Shia as infidels, and their Sunni collaborators as apostates.

In order for the twelfth imam or Mahdi to emerge, there must be worldwide chaos for him to bring “peace.” This is precisely what international terrorism is all about. It is the fermenting of worldwide chaos even by the Moslems so that their Mahdi might arise and establish world peace out of the chaos they have created. Like all religions, Islam has serious divisions within itself and consequently wars even against itself for one group to obtain political, economic and social ascendancy above their counterparts. Moslems are the only terrorists in the world today and their favourite attack on any who single out Moslems is “RACIAL PROFILING!” They have infiltrated the West with a specific agenda. The word, “Jihad” is, for Moslems a trigger. That Moslem neighbour you think is so peace-loving and wonderful will cut your throat in the middle of the night when the real call for jihad goes out. It must never be forgotten that Moslems are ruled by strong demon spirits that have such control over them that Moslems will obey their religious leaders or mullahs. Should the mullah declare jihad, Moslems will fight to the death for what they believe. This is the unseen enemy by which foolish westerners are seduced and deceived. Most Christians have no discernment and fail to operate by using the gifts of the Holy Spirit. In the movie, “Not Without My Daughter” which is a “must see,” and is a true story the Iranian husband who studied medicine in USA never once attended a mosque whilst in the USA. He boldly tells his daughter, “Honey, I am as American as apple pie.” Pressurizing his wife to pay a trip to Iran with their daughter, his uncle knocks on the bedroom door the first morning they are in Iran and orders him to prayers. Dutifully, the doctor obeys. He soon within days, shouts at his wife and then slaps her when she objects to his going to morning prayers. The movie graphically portrays this spirit rising up and controlling the doctor. He has always had this demon in him but it laid dormant until triggered by the command of his uncle. This is precisely how Islam operates. This is the huge danger for Europe and America. I think that it is childish to debate whether President Obama is a Moslem or not. The evidence is plentiful that he is and that his Middle Eastern policies have been utterly corrupted by his religious affiliations. Remember, it is an honour to lie and deceive in Islam especially if it means conquering the infidel.

It must be remembered, however, that even Islam or the second beast of Revelation 13 is under the control of the first beast and gives allegiance to the the Antichrist and his system. The world elite are still in control and play the pawns on the world chess board. Islam is one of their pawns. There is no way at all that the Moslems are free operating agents. They are manipulated and controlled by the world elite and used by them for world domination and control through violence and fear. They have swept into Europe and America with their aggression and manipulation demanding that even the laws of the nations bend and yield to their whims. Why should European laws and norms be altered to accommodate Moslems? Why should western women change their dress and behavioral codes because it is offensive to Moslems? Why should a Moslem father escape justice in Finland for murdering his seven year old daughter who converted to Christianity claiming that it was an honour killing? Why are most Moslem rape cases in Europe ignored by the courts or judged with impunity? Why should I bend let alone change my ways at all to accommodate these lawless people as they enter Europe? If they are offended, let them be offended or go home. Why should the tax payers of Europe spend millions of Euros educating these terrorists and lawless immigrants by teaching them the norms of European society or giving them the food they demand? Break the law and they must go to prison or pay heavy fines instead of shouting, "Racism!" Why should there be one set of standards in European schools for Moslems and another set for Europeans? Such nonsense has to stop. But, it will not stop because it is all about social democrats in most European countries making huge sums of money out of refugees and gaining political ascendancy by having their support.

It is not about racism but about not wanting to change to the will of the Moslems. Why should I? They are the Moslems who must change. If they wish to come to Europe they should change to adopt European culture and ways. If they do not like it they should go home. This is NOT racism but simply my refusal to bow my knees to a system with which I vehemently disagree. It is time for westerners to understand and accept that Islam is NOT a religion but a way of life. The separation of church and state is a complete anathema in Islam. It is precisely for this reason above all others that the western mind set will never comprehend Islam. There is little if anything with which we might agree as far as culture is concerned and as far as religion, nothing at all.

The establishment of the Caliphate with its intention to go worldwide is nothing short of preparation for the twelfth Imam. The humanist western media and leaders love to flaunt the expression, "The excesses of Daesh" suggesting that the Islamic State is a far out branch of radical terrorism. Nothing could be further from the truth. The practices of Daesh are fundamental teachings and implementations of the Koran and not of fringe radicals. Why should I accept or be made to accept such teachings by being labelled “RACIST.” How about Moslems being called racist for calling me a “KAFER” or unbeliever. Such a term adopted by apartheid South Africa -which came from Islam’s kafer - but spelled “kafir” was an apex slogan of racism. Yet, the Moslems who call me KAFER with as much venom as the apartheid South Africans poured out upon black people are themselves not termed RACIST. Instead, because I oppose Islamization, I am termed a RACIST. The irony is itself ironical.

These are the headlines in one major media outlet for ONE day in Europe:

Radicalization probe uncovers video of gang rape by migrants in Belgium

Several of the suspects showed little remorse for the incident, which happened in November, and didn’t even believe it was a crime at all, the police said. “She has nothing to complain about. Women must obey men,” one of them reportedly told the police.

The attitude sparked outrage among Belgians.

“Iraqi refugee rapes ten year old boy in Austria, explains it as ‘sexual emergency’.”

Is this what YOU want, because I do not! Call me RACIST, I do not care but I refuse to tolerate such nonsense or bury my head in the sand. THIS is ISLAMIC REALITY for Europe. Most welcome!? The most stupid liberal humanist feminist speaking on television in Finland remarked, “If you see refugees raping me, don’t stop them.” This is sick!

CHAPTER SEVEN

WESTERN HUMANISM'S FOOLISHNESS

I have included, by kind permission of Ann Marie Waters of Sharia Watch, this excellent defense of anti Islamization and why it is not racism but realism. This rebuttal of Laurie Penny further enlightens and enforces what I have written in the foregoing chapter. Thank you so much Ms Waters and keep on with your crusading.

“I have no intention of launching an attack on Laurie Penny for her New Statesman article.

What good would it do? All I want from her, and feminists who share her views, is that they read what I write below and try to absorb it. This is important. It is a direct message to all feminists who support the massive and unprecedented immigration that Europe is experiencing now, and has experienced for the last couple of decades. It is not enough to dismiss us all as racists and bigots, this may make you feel more comfortable but it simply isn't true. It isn't bigotry or racism to observe and acknowledge reality, and there are some harsh realities that I wish you would take on board. I'm aware that as dyed-in-the-wool left-wingers, these realities will not sit well with you but they are real none the less.

REALITY NUMBER ONE: We are not all equal

Leftists are absolutely wedded to the notion that we are all alike, that we all share the same values, and we all want harmony and justice. We don't. Like it or not, there are a lot of people out there who want violence and misogyny, who want the right to marry off their daughters, or to mutilate their genitals. Some people are rapists, some are jihadists, and some take great pleasure from tearing the clothes from a woman in a public square on New Year's Eve. This leftist naivety that causes you to sanctimoniously advocate for open borders on behalf of your fellow human being doesn't take any account of the fact that the executioner is a fellow human being, the sharia oppressor is a human being, the mutilator is a human being. Not all human beings have good intentions, try to learn that and then use your common sense to determine who you want to have around you, and who you do not.

REALITY NUMBER TWO: Not all cultures are equal

But here's the one that leftists really don't like – not all cultures are equal either. Some cultures are far superior to others, this is nowhere more evident than on the treatment of women. You rightly point out that sexual assault is a serious matter regardless of where it takes place, but the fact of the matter is that these attacks did not take place in Germany prior to now, and German men were not responsible for them. These were attacks carried out by immigrants in Germany, and most have come from Muslim-majority countries.

Rape rates are exploding all over Europe; Norway, Denmark, Finland, Austria, Germany, and especially Sweden. Most of these rapes are not being committed by native men, but by migrants, most of them from the Muslim world.

You said in your article that misogyny has no colour or creed. Colour yes, but creed? You must be joking! Doesn't it ever occur to left-wing feminists that the treatment of women in the Islamic world is not only appalling by Western standards, but by any standards. When it comes to misogyny, the Islamic world is quite simply head and shoulders above the rest. Why do you think that is? What could it possibly be? Could it be because Islamic scripture teaches men that women are beneath them? That they can use violence against women that won't submit?

Everywhere that Islam has influence, women suffer because of it. The severity varies certainly but I would argue that it varies depending upon how much influence Islam actually has.

Sharia law, a law based on Islam, is uniquely terrible to women. Her testimony is worth half of a man's, she has little to no rights over her children, her husband is permitted to hit her if she is disobedient, and she has no unilateral right to divorce. You need to confront this reality, and realize that it is right here in Britain, and thriving. Even if you argue that sharia councils are a matter of choice, which they're not, are you happy with the availability of that choice? Do you think treating women like that is something we should be able to choose to do? Or should it be disallowed on principle? Are you aware that sharia family law, as practiced in Britain, was declared by the House of Lords (in its legal capacity) as "wholly incompatible" with basic human rights, precisely because of its treatment of women? Why aren't you, as a feminist speaking out about that?

REALITY NUMBER THREE: Not all religions are the same

In no other culture in the world do the law books permit the stoning to death of women for adultery.

Another harsh reality is this: not all religions are the same. To argue that they are is to argue that the religion itself, its scripture and its practices, aren't actually relevant. That is an absurd position. I will save you the trouble of "but the Bible..." and remind you of the centuries of secularization that Western society has undergone, as well as moderation and reform within Christianity itself. Today, the Western world is not influenced in any significant way by Biblical literalism. The Islamic world, on the other hand, is enormously influenced by Quranic literalism, so much so that you can be executed (by law of the land) for questioning or criticizing it. These are two different worlds feminists, and like it or not, they are not compatible.

Immigration is bringing Islamic norms, and Islamic attitudes towards women, to the West, and it is making free women less free, and safe women less safe. The reason what is happening in Europe is so shocking is not because European women are more important than other women, it's because we're seeing a reduction in the safety of previously safe women. We are seeing a reduction in the freedom of previously free women. We are turning back the clock on all of the achievements that have been made in the Western world. This is bad news for all women, regardless of where they live.

You appear to ignore and dismiss these achievements and speak as if things are as bad for women here as everywhere else. They're not of course, but they soon could be, thanks to immigration from the Muslim world. Do you honestly think women's position is no worse in Egypt or Somalia than it is in the UK? If you do, you simply cannot be taken seriously. If you won't acknowledge and condemn the very worst treatment of women that exists in the world, why should I listen to you about anything related to feminism?

Last year, the film Suffragette was released. Personally, I found it somewhat disappointing in that it failed to sufficiently demonstrate the importance of a woman's vote, and what her life was like beforehand. But, I was far more disappointed to see the memory of these astonishing women smeared and slandered by leftists who attacked them as "racist" (what else)? The reason leftists are beginning to smear great Western achievements is the same reason left-wing feminists are more concerned about those of us protesting Muslim immigration than you are about rape, a deep-seated hatred of all things Western. Somewhere deep in the dark crevices of the soul, lefties believe that Europeans deserve to suffer: even more so when those Europeans are white.

This despicable attack on the Suffragettes demonstrates a far wider and deeper sickness in the thinking of the "equality" obsessed left, and indeed a complete lack of understanding of what it was those women achieved. Thanks to the Suffragettes, women went from being property to owning property, and politicians began caring very much indeed what women were thinking. It was the greatest single achievement for women in modern history. And now their memory is tainted, thanks to the despicable Left.

REALITY NUMBER FOUR: Women in Europe are unsafe

The final harsh reality is this, and I'm glad I'm not the one who has to face it: you are contributing, quite significantly, to ensuring that 10,000's of women, who would not otherwise have faced sexual assault or rape, will now do so. Women will be raped because of your demand for open borders and your insistence that those of us who oppose them are racists or bigots. You won't recognize the realities of life in any way, and are more than happy to allow rape in furtherance of your politics. You must be – you know it is happening and you still haven't condemned the open borders that caused it.

I sincerely hope that at least some left-wing feminists wake up in 2016, and realize the enormity of the damage they are causing. I hope too that they grow up and stop focusing on ridiculous trivialities and realize just what danger they're in. Stop attacking good men (I have many great men in my life, you should try it), families, decent conservatives, or sexy adverts, and start defending your civil rights; your right to vote, to protection from violence, to education, to marry who you choose, to petition for divorce, to rights over your children, to own property, to work.... The rights, in other words, the Suffragettes won for you and that every Islamist on the planet would happily take away.

It's time for the harsh realities feminists. Women's rights, actual civil rights, are in trouble in Europe. This is important and feminists are going to have to step up. But you don't. Instead, you attack those of us who do. Shame on you.

Finally, a few words on Pegida. I understand that many will worry about walking with Pegida due to the undeserved reputation, but I would implore people to remember: those who allowed women to be sexually assaulted en masse, and covered it up, are the same people who call Pegida "far-right."

These are the people who apparently did not have the resources to defend women from attack, but suddenly found troops and water cannons to stamp on democratic protest. This is where we are.

If a Government keeps its borders open to known dangers, while clamping down on those who protest, I know with whom I'll be standing. It's where a real feminist would stand, and I sincerely hope others will join me.

PEGIDA – THE LIES, AND THE TRUTH

Angela Merkel, Chancellor of Germany and de facto EU boss, said in her New Year message at the outset of 2015 that Pegida had “hate in their  hearts.” It's an interesting comment from a woman who sees her own people attacked in the street but doesn't think it important enough to control her borders. German woman tell her they're frightened, but she appears rather unmoved.

Pegida, meaning Patriotic Europeans Against the Islamization of the West, began in Dresden in 2014. The group seeks to halt the mass migration of Muslims to the Western world, as it fears the growing influence of Islam. Its initial march through Dresden in October 2014 drew only a small number of people. They persevered however and continue to hold Monday night walks through the city, sometimes attracting 10,000's of supporters.

Just a few days after Merkel's condemnation of Pegida, the iconic Cathedral that dominates the city of Cologne switched off its lights in protest at their presence there. The dean of the Cathedral suggested those walking with Pegida should “think about who they march alongside”. He cannot have known that one year later, events in his city would prove Pegida right, and perhaps it was he who should be thinking – about what mass immigration is doing to the German people.

It was of course Cologne that hit the headlines when a 1,000-mob of migrants robbed and sexually assaulted 100s of women during recent New Year celebrations in the city's square. Some of the migrants even hit Cologne Cathedral – shooting fireworks in to its grounds.

Following this assault of Germans on German streets, Pegida returned to Cologne. While police did not have the resources to prevent the assaults, they certainly found what was needed to attempt to crush the protest. Police stood by and watched German people attacked by immigrants, but used water cannon on protestors days later.

Needless to say, media coverage of Pegida has been less than flattering. This is hardly a surprise when the German Chancellor had described them as people of hatred. Here in the UK, BBC coverage is similarly disparaging. Routinely referring to Pegida as “far-Right”, and those who oppose them as “anti-fascist”, the image of Pegida as a crowd of racist thugs is reinforced again and again.

I recently became deputy leader of the newly formed official UK branch of Pegida, and so recently set out to attend my first rallies. I was completely stunned by what I saw. I was stunned not only by the behaviour of the so-called “anti-fascists”, but at the scope of the lie we have been told. The fact that decent people carry on protesting in the face of such lies is a testament to their courage and commitment.

My first rally was in Copenhagen. Myself, Tommy Robinson, and Paul Weston went there to help with the launch of Pegida Denmark – led by Tania Groth.

Behind a banner reading “For Freedom” we set out on a short walk through Copenhagen’s city centre. We walked with men and women of all ages. It was not an all-white affair, and it certainly wasn’t a group of football hooligans or Neo-nazis. These were ordinary people who are desperately concerned, as I am, about the changing face of this continent – change that is likely to be irrevocable and to make us significantly less safe and less free.

While we walked through Copenhagen, we were heavily guarded by an excellent Danish police force. It was perfectly clear from the outset what the role of the police was to be – to protect us from violent attack by “anti-fascists”. There wasn’t a single act of aggression from Pegida marchers. There was no shouting or baiting, all of this came exclusively from the black-clad leftists lining the streets. If Angela Merkel really wants to see people with “hate in their hearts” she ought to join a Pegida rally and see just what brutes we are up against.

Two days later, we were in Dresden to speak at their weekly gathering. This was an enormous crowd composed of men and women of all ages, no Nazis, no thugs, no one that would cause the slightest bit of alarm. There was no violence, no threats, no intimidation. Yet again, the role of the police was to protect us from the “anti-fascists”.

To give you an idea of Pegida Dresden: at the end of the rally a small group of men and women, perhaps in their 60s or 70s, played guitars and sang German folk songs on the city square. I stood and shook my head as the realization of the size of the lie became more and more apparent.

This is an extraordinary situation we are in. Leaders all over Europe continue to change our continent beyond all recognition and label those of us who object as immoral, as monsters. A complicit media sustains this falsehood by dutifully labeling Pegida “far-Right” and the thugs who threaten us as “anti-fascists”.

We are living in a Europe of two realities – actual reality and the one manufactured by our leaders. Those who live in actual reality are demonized as a matter of course, in an attempt to frighten the public in to believing what they know isn’t true, because they might otherwise find themselves labelled “far-Right”.

Our leaders are putting on a show. Their lies are fantastic and fly in the face of all evidence. Now, EU leaders tell us that the Cologne sex attacks have nothing to do with migration, despite the fact that they were carried out by migrants. Merkel pretends she is listening to Germany with hints that she will make it harder to claim asylum. While she does so, 1000s continue to enter her country every day. It really is Orwellian. We are living in the year 1984.

So now we approach the launch event of Pegida, UK, which will take place in Birmingham on February 6th. I am optimistic. I hope that the leftist thugs will leave us alone. I hope that racists and Neo-nazis will leave us alone. If they do, we will have a peaceful march and rally and will express our opposition, as is our democratic right, to the growing Islamization of our country and continent.

We cannot let left-wing thugs defeat us or frighten us away. The intent of the leftist fascists is to create an atmosphere so toxic that ordinary decent people will be scared to attend. We can't allow them to do it.

The stakes in this are extraordinarily high. The influence of Islam in Britain has already profoundly altered our society. Free speech is dead, and thousands upon thousands of sexual assaults and rapes continue to go unpunished.

It's time for us to ignore the stage-show our leaders are producing and look instead to reality. If we don't take steps now, however difficult it may be, that reality will become ever darker, and the lies ever greater. Only courage can defeat tyranny, and telling the truth in the current political climate, is the most courageous act of all.

CHAPTER EIGHT

MY NEIGHBOUR

Who is my neighbour? It will surprise most readers to know that the word, “neighbour,” in both the Hebrew Old Testament and the Greek New Testament means the same thing. A neighbour is very clearly, “a fellow citizen,” “a countryman,” or “kinsfolk.” My neighbour is not someone far flung but is described variously as, “lover,” “husband,” “friend” or “brother.” Very clearly then, “neighbour” is one who abides by the same values and principles as I do according to my culture and standards and is of the same ethnicity as I am. This is particularly pertinent when it comes to the Bible and the Gospel message. Jesus went even further when asked who were his mother and brethren. Jesus did not answer, “fellow believers” but was very specific that they were those who did the WILL OF HIS FATHER. I know many believers who do not even aspire to do the will of the Father in heaven. “While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him. Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee. But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.” (Matt 12:46-50) Jesus teaching on prayer declared, “Thy will be done...” God’s will is all about His Kingdom principles and life operating here on earth as they do in heaven. If Jesus was so particular about who His real relatives are, what then about a “neighbour?”

My neighbour is one who is of close relationship. We are called to “love our neighbour as ourselves.” The heathen, the Canaanites and all non-Israelites could not possibly be neighbours to Israel. For any heathen to join Israel required the circumcision of the men, strict observance of the Laws and customs of Israel and most importantly, the worship of the one true God, Yahweh. Fulfillment of such gave full equality with those who were born into Israel but only if the persons acquiesced. Paul, making issue of New Testament requirements boldly asserts, "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? And what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? Or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols?" (2 Co 6:14-16) How can a true believer have any agreement with a Moslem and how can a Moslem possibly be a Biblically defined, "neighbour?" It is impossible and a rotten apple in the basket will corrupt all of the good apples. This is already happening throughout Europe and the western world at large.

The migration of untold millions of people to the United States after both World War I and World War II was completely different to the migration of peoples to Europe and the open door policy of today. Peoples who migrated to America went with the purpose to BUILD a better life. Those flocking into Europe demand to be given a better life and are taking away the better life for the most part. The people to blame for the lawless influx of refugees are those equally lawless Greeks. Why would any refugee want to stay in bankrupt Greece? Again, the current liberal humanist prime minister is the one to blame with his laissez faire policy. Knowing full well that Greece is merely a conduit, he opened the borders of Greece to an avalanche of lawless, marauding hordes. I am well aware of what the Lord commanded Israel concerning the oppression of the stranger. The word, "Oppress" means, "to afflict," or "crush." On the contrary, it is the stranger that is oppressing the nationals. I have no problem whatsoever with helping a genuine refugee on condition that he fully assimilates into the society and does not demand to change it for then, he is no longer a refugee but a terrorist. When the Lord commanded Israel, "Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt,” (Exodus 22:21) His thinking was that the stranger was to assimilate into Israeli society and not remain a mongrel. Europe has been invaded by mongrels to whom the Word of the Lord applies. “Woe to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! When the morning is light, they practice it, because it is in the power of their hand. And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.” (Mic 2:1, 2) There were many peoples throughout the history of Israel like the Gibeonites who were put into servitude by Joshua. This did not mean they were vexed or oppressed but it did mean they did not have similar rights. The “Schengen” or open door policy of Europe has been misinterpreted by most nations. The freedom of movement in the Schengen was originally meant for citizens of Europe and bona fide visitors to freely move within the European Union in the same way as citizens of and legal visitors to the United States are free to move within the fifty states of the Union. What right do any refugees have to snake their way through Europe and stay where they fancy? I am one hundred percent behind Macedonia building a fence. These are not people who want to be assimilated but on the contrary, they want to impose their collective will on Europe and they are succeeding. Whilst I have no intention of oppressing them, at the same time I am not prepared to assimilate them so keep them out in the first place. Of course, the United States must initially be blamed for the refugee crisis. Just who does the USA think it is to overthrow the legitimate governments of Afghanistan, Somalia, Syria or Libya or Iraq using trumped up weapons of mass destruction ploy? With such war mongering, can anyone blame North Korea for having legitimate fears of a similar thing happening to them and therefore arming themselves appropriately for such an event not to happen? Is Syria in an any better off place today than five years ago? Certainly not when one looks at entire cities that are ghost towns with nothing but bombed out buildings. Is it any business of the USA if Syrians or Libyans live under totalitarian dictatorship and thrive? For all the destruction of Saddam Hussein’s system, the vast majority of the leadership of Daesh or the Islamic State are Saddam Hussein's old Guard leadership who are skilled in the art of war. What goes around, comes around.

I am in no wise obligated to assimilate Moslems who demand their own culture or way of life. There is no such a thing as French Moslems or British Moslems. They are just Moslems. It is very different in the USA when people say they are German Americans or Irish Americans. Everybody knows that they are Americans of German or Irish descent who are not intent on turning the USA into Germany or Ireland. The same cannot be said of the hordes pouring into Europe. They have an agenda and they are NOT my neighbours and certainly they are not "strangers" according to the Bible. What is my personal obligation towards them? Actually none, even according to the Word. Of those who genuinely want a better life and are willing to put their back to the plough and work hard to build up western culture and not destroy it I will treat them as strangers and not vex (suppress) or oppress them. I know a few and they are hard working and investing into the nation where they have settled but they are a very small minority. For the rest, send them back speedily from where they have come. Turn back the boats to North Africa or send helicopter gunships and blow the boats along the African coast to pieces before people are ever in them and set sail. What on earth do Europeans want with those Somalian pirates coming to Europe? What has Somalia to do with Europe? What are they coming to do? Set up their pirate cells right in the European capitals. The Chinese and Indians certainly know how to deal with Somalian pirates as do the Saudi Arabians! Europeans need to learn from them.

James teaches, "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world." The church needs to take note of such a Scripture. No church has the right to send money to Haiti or assist refugees when there are widows of the household of faith who struggle to pay their rent or put food on their table. Paul in being hard working was realistic and practical as we also ought to be. Whilst I will not ignore the cries of a real refugee, I challenge most in the western church if they are fulfilling the law of God as Paul clearly sets it out to the Galatians. “And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.” (Gal 6:9, 10) We so easily forget those faithful ones of the household of faith. Not to do this is hypocrisy in any language and the church is guilty.

CHAPTER NINE

THE GOLDEN CALF SYNDROME

When the tribes of united Israel divided into the ten northern tribes of Israel and the three southern tribes of Judah after the death of Solomon, their capital cities were Samaria and Jerusalem. The ten northern tribes called, "Israel," were taken captive by the Assyrians after only two hundred and forty-three years seven months and one week to be precise of continuous evil reign by nineteen kings. The reason for this is quite simple. Jeroboam of the tribe of Ephraim - that tribe that had descended from the younger son of Joseph - set up two golden calves to be worshipped by Israel. Not one of the eighteen kings that followed him had the courage or spiritual fiber to remove those wicked idols. The political purpose behind the golden calves was to stop the people of Israel from attending the Temple in Jerusalem and worshipping there with any slightest possibility of returning politically to Judah. Now, it is to be remembered that the whole of Israel at Mount Sinai had made and worshipped a golden calf whilst Moses was on the Mountain receiving the Law or marriage contract between God and Israel. How deeply had the Egyptian bull cult made impact upon the cattle-keeping Israelites can only be imagined. There is something alluring about cattle and cattle keepers are a strange breed of people. Israel came out of Egypt with vast herds of cattle. It is to be remembered that Reuben, Gad and half the tribe of Manasseh refused to cross the Jordan and enter into the Promised Land because of their cattle. They rather not enter into promise because like Lot, so long before them, they saw that east of the Jordan - without promise - was good cattle land. The Apis bull of the Egyptians was chosen to be worshipped because it symbolized the king's courageous heart, great strength, virility, and fighting spirit. Bulls horns even embellish some of the tombs of courtiers who served the early Saqqara kings around 3000BC. Priests of the bull cults identified a sacred bull by its very special markings and colours. Once the bull was proclaimed to be a god incarnate, it was taken to the temple where it was purified and then given a life of luxury in majestic quarters, feeding on the best foods and given a herd of the finest cows. The Apis bull cult is the best known of the three most prominent and divine bull cults of Egypt. How insulting to God therefore, who brought Israel out of bondage by a mighty hand and amazing wonders to have a golden Apis bull worshipped as deliverer. Is that what four hundred years of captivity had done for Israel? Far worse then, after forty years in the wilderness and hundreds of years in Canaan was it for the ten tribes under Jeroboam to worship two golden Apis bulls and be told, "Behold thy gods, O Israel which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt." That demonic Antichrist spirit appeared to hold great sway over Israel and kept them in such a stranglehold of bondage that it ultimately led them into Assyrian captivity because of their flagrant idolatry. Is the European Union not worshipping the Apis of Egypt with her symbol of the woman riding the beast? From where did this symbol come?

From the Assyrian captivity, the ten tribes were scattered to the far flung reaches of the earth. There is no doubt about this. James writes his epistle to the "TWELVE TRIBES SCATTERED ABROAD." The psalmist writes, "Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen." Who are these people today and where are they to be found? For anyone who cares to undertake an in-depth study of the Tribes of Israel – both Biblically and historically – there are some amazing and indisputable facts. The Jews of Israel today are the descendants of those who were confederate with Judah, namely Benjamin and Levi. The very word, "Jew," comes from Judah which has been variously spelled including, "Jewdah." They returned from the Babylonian captivity and rebuilt the Temple and City of Jerusalem. Not any of the descendants of the ten tribes were among the Jews who were first called Jews way back in the book of second Kings. There are two very important aspects to the division of the nation of Israel. The Sceptre belonged to Judah, fourth son of Jacob who became Israel. The Birthright, however was given to Ephraim even over his elder brother Manasseh. Jacob adopted the two sons of Joseph and made them his own even as Reuben and Simeon were his own. This is of enormous importance. Consequently, the names Joseph and Ephraim and Manasseh are interchangeable. "For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance." (Jos 14:4)

Here is a most powerful prophecy concerning Israel and Judah as given by Ezekiel. Of course, it is an end time prophecy and cannot be understood if any cannot comprehend the difference between Israel with her Birthright and Judah with her Sceptre. God is going to bring back together the two houses and make them one for His glory and purpose. How He is going to accomplish this is beyond our understanding but He is God and there is none beside Him and His promises are yea and amen.

"The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions: And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand. And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these? Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand. And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes. And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all: Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. And, David my servant shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them. And, they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant David shall be their prince for ever. Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore. My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.” (Ezek 37:15-28)

One of the sticks is the Sceptre and the other is the Birthright, namely Judah and Joseph. The prophecy of Ezekiel is confirmed by a separate prophecy as given by Zechariah. The two sticks taken by the Lord to himself in Zechariah are called Beauty and Bands. “And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And, I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock. Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me. Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another. And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people. And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD. And, I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver. And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was priced at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD. Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.” (Zech 11:7-14)

The Lord first cuts asunder one stick, Beauty, which speaks of the ten-tribed Israel. Now, remember that after the Babylonian captivity lasting seventy years, JUDAH returns to Jerusalem. They multiply numerically until the coming of Christ but their hearts are far from the Lord. After the transaction where the Lord is sold for thirty pieces of silver, the Lord cuts asunder the other staff called Bands which represents Judah or the Jews. This confirms the breaking of the brotherhood. Ezekiel’s prophecy cannot be fulfilled until after the transaction of the thirty pieces of silver has taken place. Only in 1948 was Judah, Bands, restored to their land a second time where they wait for Beauty to be re-united so they become one again according to Ezekiel’s prophecy. But, at the present time literally, Beauty is still captivated with idols especially of silver and gold and the continued worshipping of the Egyptian bull. The word of the Lord is so clear with this regard. Notice the double emphasis on “unto this day,” meaning to the very present time. It sounds so much like Europe and fast sounds like America has become. Remember, we are speaking here about Ephraim or the ten tribes. They are not lost but simply hidden from us unless we dig deep to find them. “Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel; With whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them: But the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice. And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods. And the covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods. But the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner. So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.” (2 Kings 17:34-41) All the reader has to do is look at the number of witches there are today. Seances, tarot cards, Ouija boards, yoga, horror movies and a myriad of other things all spell fascination with the supernatural occult. The worship of idols has literally captivated the western world in this present age. The excessive consumption of beer is also a purely western condition that has now become a plague and governments love it so because they make huge taxes from it.

About the time that Judah went into captivity to Babylon, a vast army of Israel - the ten tribes – escaped from their Assyrian captivity and moved through the Caucasus Mountains into what is modern day Georgia and southern Russia and Ukraine. From there, they spread west and east establishing communities as they went. They put into practice the vast farming skills they had acquired both in Egypt and after settling Canaan. Their love of cattle was not quenched and this love can be traced through the generations of those same descendants. Is it any wonder that cattle have become so important in all the nations to where Europeans have travelled and settled? Look at South Africa, Brazil, Argentina, Australia and above all America. The natives of those nations were not really cattle keepers in the sense of having vast herds of animals scientifically bred. But, there was another branch of the ten tribes with which I am mostly concerned. When Israel settled Canaan, half of Manasseh and Dan settled along the Mediterranean coast. Of course Ephraim was complicit with them. These tribes became excellent and skilled seamen. When we read of the ships that plied not only the Mediterranean but also the Indian Ocean as well as the Atlantic bringing spices, cloth, exotic animals, gold, silver and precious stones we can but marvel and truly wonder if North America had not been “discovered” way back in history and certainly before Columbus. During the reign of Solomon sea trade was vast and increased continually. When Assyria invaded Israel, great numbers of the descendants of Ephraim, Manasseh, Dan and even Simeon fled the invading forces by sailing west. And, to where did they go? To places where they had been trading and had set up far flung colonies of commerce such as Italy, Spain and the Isles bordering the great sea or Atlantic Ocean. How did they know that the Atlantic was a vast sea if they had not sailed it? But, Dan and Simeon also had large colonies of people in the interior of physical Israel; Dan in the North and Simeon in the East at Mount Seir. These parts of Dan and Simeon were taken captive by Shalmaneser with the rest of the ten tribes.

Now, the prophecy that Jacob gave to Dan is translated, “Dan shall be a serpent by the way.” Better translated is, “Dan shall be a serpent’s trail.” This is of utmost significance because wherever Dan went, he left his name and therefore his trail is easily identified. Wherever the name, Don, Dan, Din, Dub or Den appears it is the custom of Dan in naming every place after their father, Dan. Reaching Dan-emerke we find the Scan-DIN-navians all carrying the mark of Dan. All along the Mediterranean coast there are Don and finally, the first settlers in Ireland are called, “Tuatha de Danaans,” literally meaning, “The Tribe of Dan.” Dons are found everywhere in Irish names as also in Scotland and England. The isles were colonized as far back as 900BC. This would have given much opportunity for a prince of the Zarah branch of Judah’s family to settle the Isles and, indeed it was so. When Jeremiah arrived in Ireland in 721BC with the daughters of Zedekiah the history of Ireland shows that one of the daughters married prince Herremon who was a prince of the “Tuatha de Daanans.” If Herremon was a prince of the tribe of Dan then he must have come out of Judah for there can be no prince out of Dan itself. The Sceptre belongs to Judah.

In the same way that Dan left his trail, Israel was cast out because of idolatry especially the worship of Baal. The name of Baal appears in many places in Israel. For instance there is Baal-peor; Baal-hazor, Baal-gad. Correspondingly, in Ireland there appears, Baal-y-gowan, Baal-y-Castell, Baal-y-Bai, Baal-Athi and so many others. There is no doubt that some of the tribes carried on their worship of Baal. The heathen peoples descended from Phoenicians and Samaritans (who occupied the vacant land after Israel was taken captive by the Assyrians) – were mongrels. They were these mongrels that settled in southern Ireland and are totally different peoples to those who settled the North. The sectarian violence that has plagued Ireland for centuries is the same that plagues Israel and the Palestinian territories of today because they are the same root peoples at war.

In Isaiah chapter forty-nine the Lord speaks of “the people of the covenant” who were to inhabit the desolate places of the earth. The word covenant in Hebrew is “beriyth.” Ish in Hebrew means, “a man.” Remembering that Hebrew does not use vowels, the Anglicized form of the word covenant is Brith. Joined with ish we have BRITHISH or men of the covenant who are British or Britons dwelling in the British Isles. The ancient Welsh people called themselves “Bryth y Brithan” which means the covenanters of the land of the covenant. The earliest recorded settlers in Wales and the South of England who came in 720BC were called Simonii or of the tribe of Simeon. It is no accident that the British became the greatest sea-faring nation and built ships to circumnavigate the earth taking the covenant message of God’s great love and consequently fulfilling the promise that God made to Abraham. The founding and development of the United States of America has nothing to do with freemasonry. The thirteen stars and stripes representing the original colonies is the representation of the thirteen tribes of Israel. The great eagle is a symbol with the shadowing wings of the spread eagle that represents Israel according to

Jeremiah. The eagle carries two opposing items in its great talons. In the first Dexter talon is an olive branch symbolic of peace. Hosea who speaks so much about Ephraim – Israel describes “his branches shall spread and his beauty shall be as the OLIVE tree.” The Signia of the house of Joseph is the olive tree and this became the standard of the tribe of Manasseh. Manasseh was the thirteenth tribe and it was prophesied that Manasseh would become a great nation and overtake Ephraim. America, brother nation of Britain became greater in numbers, wealth and power. In the other talon the eagle holds a bundle of thirteen arrows representing war; that Israel was to fight to inherit the land of promise. The tribe of Joseph were bowmen. Jacob’s words to Joseph were, “Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall: The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him: But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob; (from thence is the shepherd, the stone of Israel:)” (Gen 49:22-24) The shield on the breast of the great eagle has thirteen pieces called pales or pale ways. They are united by one on top. The Lord said to Abraham, “I am thy SHIELD...”

On the national seal is the cloud emitting rays of glory. The cloud and glory are symbolic of God’s glorious presence with Israel throughout her wilderness wanderings. The cloud surrounds “The Constellation” which is a group of thirteen stars appearing on an azure sky. This is the dream of Joseph which drove him to separation from his brethren. On the reverse of the seal is the great pyramid with the eye. This is not from masonry but it is the Great Pyramid of Egypt with the all-seeing eye of Almighty God. This Great Pyramid speaks of the birthplace of the Egyptian sons of Joseph and Israel’s calling out of their Egyptian roots as well as Jeremiah’s brief sojourn in that country before sailing to the Isles. Interestingly, on the national crest of the United Kingdom is the second great monument of Egypt, namely the Sphinx. Once again in symbols, the brother nations are united. Perhaps it is for these reasons that Egypt is not confederate with other nations against Israel in the end days. Over the pyramid are the thirteen letters of the motto, “Annuit Coeptis” meaning “He (the Lord) hath prospered our undertakings.” Twice we read in Genesis 39 that the Lord prospered Joseph. The number 13 most often symbolizes rebellion in Gematria but it also symbolizes authority and prosperity. All of the names of the patriarchs are multiples of thirteen in Gematria as is “Elohim” as are, “Israel,” “Sinai,” “Torah” and many other words.

I do not have the space or time to continue with an expose of the ten tribes moving west and occupying much of Europe and then the Americas and wherever the British set up their far flung colonies. The statement, “The sun never sets on the British Empire” was absolutely the truth in describing the extent of such a vast – the greatest ever - empire by so small an island nation descended from Ephraim and then his brother, Manasseh or modern America. BUT, what God ordains will surely come to pass. God’s promise to King David that there would never cease to be one who would sit upon his throne was not spiritual but literal. When Jeremiah left Jerusalem under the blessing of the Babylonian conqueror he took with him certain artifacts including an ark and the stone of Jacob. This was the stone upon which Jacob had laid his head when fleeing from Esau and which stone he had anointed. I have no doubt that this was the very stone that provided water for Israel throughout her wanderings in the wilderness. This stone is the one upon which the kings of Israel were crowned standing. The stone is called by the northern Irish and Scots, Lia Fail or literally stone of fate or stone of destiny. In the British Isles then, the two branches of the house of Israel, namely the Sceptre and the Birthright were brought back together. But, when Judah rejected the living word of God seven hundred years later, it lighted upon Ephraim Israel who carried it to the ends of the earth together with his brother Manasseh.

When Israel-Samaria was scattered they also carried with them certain great weaknesses of character. Love of money was one, love of false gods was another and love of alcohol, particularly beer was a third. As we follow the trail of Dan and also of the other nine tribes through Europe and America, we clearly see these weaknesses emerging to corrupt and destroy the great destiny of scattered Israel. Perhaps one of the greatest weaknesses of scattered Israel was the same as when they were in the land of promise and that has been their fascination and affinity to intermarry and inter-mingle with the heathen. The fascination particularly of Scan-DIN-avians with the descendants of Ham is a point in case. Even Ezra bewailed this very fact regarding the return of Judah to Jerusalem. "For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass." (Ez 9:2) The great western sins before God are the love of money – the gods of silver and gold – idolatry especially the worship of the human body and mind and an insatiable love for beer. Coupled with these sins is that compromise of accepting the mongrels from the nations and co-mingling with them. Part of the elitist agenda is to have one chocolate coloured race of virtual slaves ruled over by the "haves," who for the most part are elitist whites.

This brings me to the present situation in the western world. Compromise is the order of the day and the Israel of Europe and America are mingling themselves with whoever decides to invade. Foreigners who wanted to join Israel were required to strictly obey the commandments of the Lord. Since prayer was thrown out of American schools in 1961 there has been a rapid decline in ethics and morals and a turning away from the one true and living God, the One whose only son is the Lord Jesus Christ. I am reminded of when the great king Nebuchadnezzar was lifted up with pride and arrogance how the Lord brought him so low as to make him as the animals of the field until he repented. This is also the coming fate of the ten tribes scattered abroad and their descendants. Whilst Belshazzar was yet reveling in his drunken feast the Persians had already entered his city. His kingdom and reign ended that night, as did his life. America and Europe are as reveling at the drunken feast of Belshazzar; they continue life as normal not even knowing that the wooden horse is already in the citadel and the enemy is already taking over. Because the descendants of Joseph have turned to their gods of gold and silver and reveled in the arrogance of human conceit, the Lord also has given them up to that wicked, and “that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling places that are not theirs.” This is happening as I write. The pillaging, the rape, murder and destruction of Europe and fast coming upon America is already well underway. The lust of the peoples of Europe, especially the descendants of Dan to inter mingle and marry the mongrels and cavort with their idols in sexual perversion knows no limits. Well, God’s finger might again write; “Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin.” “This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE-God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it. TEKEL- Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. PERES- Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.” (Dan 5:26-28) Bravo to Britain, who having already learned a costly lesson, is reluctant to open her doors to refugees. They are the people of God’s destiny with a high calling as with America. Is it therefore any wonder that the enemy of souls seeks to destroy these nations? Is it any wonder also, that true Israel scattered is not part of the alignment against Israel Judah in the last days. During the great Millennial kingdom of the Lord on earth they will see the two sticks, Beauty and Bands coming together again as one in the territory promised to Abraham under the headship of the King of Kings. What a marvelous fulfillment of prophecy this will be.

CHAPTER TEN

LIBERAL PRESS

“The god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.” The worship of the enlightened mind has blinded the western world to the truth and knowledge of God. Consequently, “The wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.” (Rom. 1:18-25)

Paul the Apostle paints a true picture of the current condition of the world, where the villain is hero and wins, at least for now. It is frightening how far westerners have strayed from the Lord worshipped the creation and become utterly deceived and seduced by the powers of darkness. This is, indeed, as Jesus prophesied just like the days of Noah when the whole earth was living in revelry. I become outraged at the liberal press in all its forms degrading God and Jesus Christ. Most are simply anti everything that has any standards. Newspaper editors are little tin-pot gods who march according to the drum beat of the humanist agenda. They produce a sick type of “reading entertainment” for the masses who devour their lies and trust their deceit which is hinged on the establishment of anarchy. They have no absolutes but their decisions are founded on whims that change faster than the wind. They lead people astray. There are laws upon laws controlling the media but they sidestep such regulations with impunity. The sad part is the people love it so because it is sensationalism and this is what sells newspapers. It matters not whose lives are destroyed in the process, just as long as newspapers are sold, money is made and they live comfortable lives all in the name of journalism. Responsible journalism? It hardly exists.

The hatred for the only true and living God, the Lord Jesus is with them, beyond comprehension. They have enormous resources and the media moguls are all in bed with the ruling elite. This is part of the great conspiracy for the take over of the planet. There is one thing which they have forgotten and it is simply that God is on the throne of the universe.

The insatiable western appetite for sensationalism is the force that drives the media moguls and their editors. Most are liberal humanists who see things only through their perverted and short sighted tunnel. If one disagrees or offers dissent in any form one is immediately branded as being dangerous and a threat to the stability of the society. What happened to DEMOCRATIC rights? Well, they never really existed at all. People who oppose the programmed response for Europe by the elitists are called, “Neo-nazis,” “fascists,” “racists” and a whole list of other names that breed fear into normal, peace-loving people. These people have the power of the pen and vast popular appeal and opinion behind them. The mass of Europe have been socialized and brain-washed for over sixty years as to how to react and behave under every circumstance. Europeans are naive and living in a fools paradise. The war that tore Europe asunder in the 1940’s is about to visit the continent again but it will not be brother against brother this time.

The press keeps belching out the opinion and policies of the elite whose agenda they boldly promote. And what is the thinking behind these opinions and policies? The thinking is simply that the white race peoples of the western world must be made to believe they are inferior so as to be brought down socially, economically, religiously and politically. Only then will they be easily manipulated and controlled. Using the race card brings fear of being outside the box. In the economic disaster that is coming – and everybody knows it - what will any individual do who is outside the box? Indeed, this is Animal Farm of 1984 and it has only taken thirty years to reach what was scoffed at back then. What is particularly frightening for me are two things. First, is the mass surveillance of the whole planet and second, the dramatic speed with which robotics have developed and exploded. In the last two years, robotics have captured the imagination of mankind. The sinister side of this is of particular note. Will there be armies of robots with the most unimaginable weapons in the decade ahead? I most certainly believe there will be and it will not be pleasant. We have been groomed for this very thing and socialized into accepting that we are no more than robots in the hands of the unscrupulous few.

I marvel at how the citizens of Europe are afraid to speak their personal opinions if those opinions are in conflict with what the media circus dictates. What happened to freedom of speech according to the dictates of my own heart and conscience? The media have ensured that the masses all think the same way and thereby are able to sway governments and even bring them down. To be out of step with my neighbour who is not out of step with the dictates of the media is unthinkable. If the media says, “Jump,” the response of the vast majority is, “How high?” With this type of control we are already again in Germany of 1937 and this is frightening. All I need to do is post any kind of message on the social network that is opposed to what the majority are thinking and there is an avalanche of venom and even filth in response. It is not any wonder then that fundamental Christianity is shredded by most westerners in this modern age? My choice to serve the only true and living God of the Bible is not acceptable to most and certainly not acceptable to Moslems.

CONCLUSION

Racism or Reality? This is the question that faces us all. The elite have indoctrinated white westerners for decades now and feel that they have reached a place where they are free to unleash upon western white people an avalanche of people of all colours and creeds in order to literally swamp them. This is a planned programme to bring down the white race who alone are able to oppose the agenda of the elitists who are themselves, white. Western liberal education has destroyed the belief of white people in themselves and their achievements. The educational systems have promoted this for forty years so that we now have a generation of educated elite who believe in ONE WORLD and not themselves; who have been made to believe that white is bad and, that we must apologize for every evil in the world as being the white man's fault.

Is it wrong for me not to want to be part of such a system? Is it wrong for me not to want to be integrated into being a number that must respond to given impulses? Absolutely, it is not but when a mob is howling one thing and I am standing for something totally different, it is most difficult to remain standing. I am not against refugees. How can I be? I, myself, was a refugee. I am against anybody attempting to enforce his culture, ideas or religion upon me or for that matter upon any part of my society. A refugee must adopt the culture and nature of the host country and not change it to suit themselves. I am against the Islamization of the West; of Europe and America or of any part of western society, the roots of which are firmly founded in Israel. If I am called RACIST because I will not submit and accept the programmed onslaught that is currently taking place against the western white race, then so be it. If I am called RACIST for opposing Islam that makes me an infidel and enemy then so be it. If I am branded RACIST because I believe that, as a result of my Israelitish roots I have been super blessed of God and given more to the world than any other peoples, then so be it too. All of this is TRUTH and REALITY and not RACISM. I do not see myself as superior to any other peoples but to have been supremely blessed of God. All I desire is to be left alone to worship the One true and living God through His only begotten son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

I do not want to be forced to change my religion, my dress or my food to accommodate some other people group through sheer force of numbers or by socialized brainwashing. I do not want to be intimidated and threatened by refugee thugs who want their own vile ways and culture. I have worked hard all my life and earned the right to enjoy my life. If I do not wish to share what I have worked to enjoy with anyone else then I should not be obligated to do so. Why must I suffer because refugees invade my society and pillage and destroy what it has taken years to build and I am the tax payer who foots the bill? Is this RACISM or REALISM? Why should I stand in a queue to be searched because of Moslem terrorists? I do not give a hoot if people call it RACIAL profiling to search only those who commit crimes. Why should white Germans be lumped together with Moslem refugees and asylum seekers who thieve and rape because that same society does not want to be called RACIST? How sick is Angela Merkel and worse, the pathetic mayor of Cologne to suggest that Germans should not get too close to refugees as to be touching them and so tempting them. If they cannot keep their private in their zipper then I have the right to use a blade on it. That solution would quickly stop the raping of European women.

I am aware that this book is totally against everything which modern liberal humanism believes and for which it stands. Sadly, the church has been invaded by this nonsense as well and sides with the world because it has been indoctrinated by the world and not lived according to the Word. Christians have believed a lie and are as compromised as the world is. I do not care whether I am labelled a RACIST because I know I am not. I am a REALIST who does not have my head in the sand like the proverbial ostrich hoping that the storm will pass by. If by this book, I have at least challenged you to think outside of your box, then I have achieved something indeed. It is not good enough to be challenged; I need to change. If black Southern Sudanese were not willing to Islamize and gave their lives not to do so, what about white westerners taking a similar stance? The current problem with white westerners is that they are not willing to die for what they believe. Moslems are more than ready to die for Islam. If I am not willing to die for what I believe, especially Christ, then I sure am not going to live for what I believe and especially Christ. Moslems are most certainly living for Allah. How dare does a Moslem come on to MY turf and call me an infidel, a Kafer, and demand that I submit and change? It will not be long before sharia courts are operating throughout Europe and women, white western women, will soon be publicly flogged and decapitated. The Moslems will quickly clean up the drugs and filth and set codes that have to be obeyed. Their ghetto mentality and laws will quickly spill over into the rest of the cities and their operating functions. What is going to happen when Moslems run the city councils? This is coming and that rapidly and white westerners have allowed it to happen, nay, encouraged it to happen by their foolish fears of being labeled RACIST!

It is time to stop sitting on the fence. Rise up and do something positive and meaningful to combat the surge of Islam that threatens to engulf us all. The Chaldeans have come and as they did to Israel of old because of the sins of idolatry of that nation they are repeating upon Europe today. A hasty, aggressive and threshing people have come to break down and destroy and subdue the same people by descent. There is going to be a great deal of heartache, suffering and bloodshed in Europe; a great deal of lawlessness and confusion before the appearance of the Antichrist who will temporarily restore law and order before the three and-a-half years of THE Great Tribulation begins. As the Great Tribulation starts, so will the sickle of the Lord gather in the greatest harvest of souls ever in the history of the church. It will be marvelous because it will be nothing of man but all of Him. Much has to happen before this appointed time begins. In the meantime, it is my responsibility to possess my vessel and to seize my inheritance in Christ.
